

Download Help

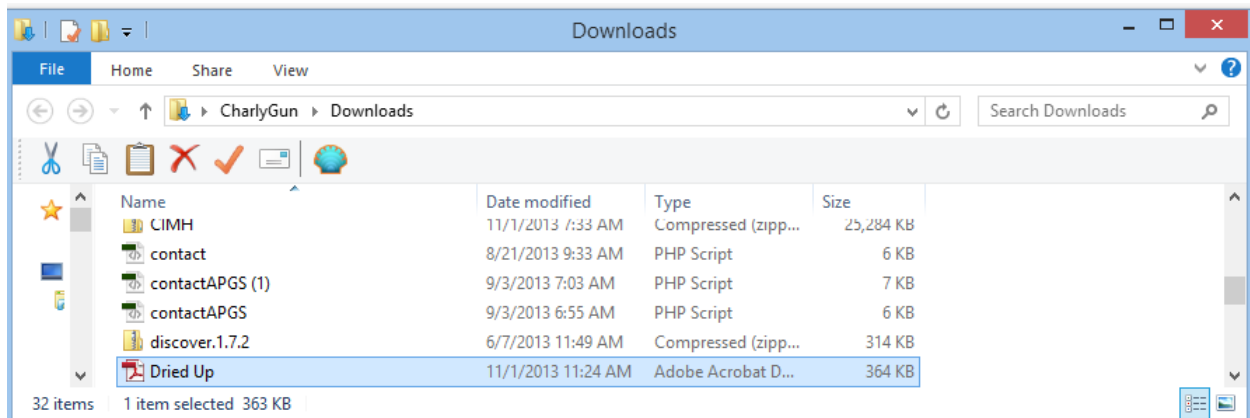

After an eBook product is purchased, you will receive an email containing a download key (URL) – an example is shown below:

Click on the Download URL, a download screen will appear, an example is below:

Click the Download button, then “Save” then “Open folder” – a screen similar to the one below will appear:

Click on the eBook that you purchased – in this example case, “Dried Up”. The eBook PDF file will now be displayed – you may save it by clicking “File”.
